HALENS MERRICK, Agent.

The man who fears to spend a cent
And never advertises,
With little gain must be content
While others take the prize.
No matter what his wares may be,
But how much worth the selling.
The world will none the wiser be,
Except 'tis by the telling.

In a drunken scrap at Hayti Sunday, Will Antwine, white, shot at Wes Calahan, colored. The marksmanship was so bad that the officers refused to make an arrest.

The funeral of Wayne Park, the little son of Milton and Florence Park, will be preached the first Sunday in August at Centertown Church by Bro. Brandon.

The Railroad Hotel in charge of that prince of good fellows H. C. Midkiff is fast growing to be one of the most popular places to stop when in Beaver Dam.

Mr. Midkiff is the right man in the right place, and he is easily how to make his guests feel at home.

When you go to Owensboro why pay $2.00 and $3.00 per day at other hotels when you can get as good accommodations as can be had anywhere at the Pleasant Hotel at $1.50 per day? Mr. David Morgan, the popular proprietor, spares neither time nor means to make this a most desirable place to stop.

Dan Hines, our colored nirod, has brought to THE Herald office a soft-shell egg about the size of a wild goose plum. Dan says it's a rooster egg and that he can prove it. Dan says he has a rooster he is fond of keep shut up all the time to keep him from fighting and that this egg was found in the coop with the rooster, where no other fowls can get in. That settles it. Next!

Miss Lillian Walker has been requested to contribute some of her beautiful and popular verses to the new publication, "The Song of the South," which is expected to be given to the public soon. The book will contain poems from the representative writers of Dixie, and is compiled by Miss Jennie Thornley Clark, of Millersville, Ga. Such eminent writers as Samuel Clemens, Mark Twain, and others are in sympathy with the movement to thus collect what is best and most representative in Southern song.

PERSONAL.

Frank Heavins, Owensboro, was in town Saturday.

W. H. Moore, Sulphur Springs, called to see us yesterday.

Mrs. Mary Heavins is visiting relatives in Davies county.

Mr. Tom Brown, Centertown, gave us a pleasant call Monday.

Mr. M. P. Kimbley, Centertown, gave us a pleasant call yesterday.

Miss Mary Lou Joplin, Elizabethtown, is the guest of Miss Edna Griffin.

Miss Glenn Bibb, Stanford, Ky., is visiting her sister, Mrs. McDowell Fair.

Mr. John E. Magan and wife, Buford, are the guests of Dr. J. S. Coleman.

Mr. W. D. Luce and sister Miss Mattie visited relatives at Narrows last week.

L. M. Renter Lowie, was the guest of his parents a few days the first of the week.

Miss Jerusha Matthews, of Newburg, Ind., is visiting her father, Mr. Anton Matthews.

G. C. Butler and family, of Weir City, Kans., are the guests of relatives near Centertown.

Mr. Will Tabor and wife, Fordville, are visiting Mr. D. M. Hocker and family this week.

Mrs. Judge J. P. Morton and sons, T. J. and Burr Morton are visiting relatives in Fayette.

Dr. W. M. Warden, Centertown, and Dr. J. S. Coleman, Centertown, called to see us Friday.

Mrs. Mary Kender, Kirby, who has been visiting her parents here, will return to her home in Dallas, Texas, to-day.

Mrs. Ann Bennett and Mrs. Addington returned Sunday from a visit to Mrs. Bennett's son and daughter, Mr. Ed Johnson, of Weir City.

Mr. Heber Matthews, The Herald's foreman, and children, little Elsie and Master Victor, leave to-day for Owensboro, where they will visit relatives for a week.

Mrs. Dr. R. E. Penfield, accompanied by her little daughter, left Saturday for Tellapoosa, Ga., where she was summoned to see her mother, Mrs. W. T. King, who is very ill.

A Good Old Woman.

Mrs. Manerva J. Warden, who lives west of Centertown, retains her strength and activity to a remarkable degree.

She is seventy-seven years old and during this spring and summer has planted and cultivated a large garden, besides doing house work and raising a lot of poultry; she has also woven forty yards of woolen cloth this summer, which cloth is smooth and fine and it appears as though it was made by some woolen manufacturer of the East. She walks up and down the high stone steps at her residence seemingly with the ease and comfort of a young person and she is never idle. She has been a faithful member of the United Baptist Church since her childhood, but while a member of that church she is not strenuous in doctrine and gives a hand of work to all.

Her library consists simply of the New Testament and HARTFORD HERALD and as each Wednesday evening comes she may be seen seated at her table reading THE HERALD. She says that all who live in Ohio and adjoining counties and don't read THE HERALD make a mistake.

A Call.

We, the undersigned Democratic voters of Abbeville precinct, Ohio county, Ky., would petition and demand of our fellow-citizens, S. K. Cox, that he shall make the race for Representative to represent our county in the next General Assembly of Kentucky, election, November, 1895:

S. F. Booth, Geo. W. Phillips, J. A. Henry, J. L. Ashby, J. R. Cox, R. E. Williams, J. M. Whithouse, Rufus Williams, S. W. Williams, V. P. Kewell, J. V. Turner, A. R. Hoover, W. A. Higgs, John Mahon, J. R. Brown, W. G. Ellis, S. L. Whitaker, Charlie Howley, R. A. Rowan, A. V. Rowan, Joe Thompson, A. R. Little, Reuben Bennett, W. R. Smith, A. R. Little, R. A. Rowan, Jr.

The Hendrickses Held.

[Owensboro Inquirer.]

Captain Bart W. Jenkins, of the U. S. Secret Service, came down from Louisville last night to obtain from the Hendricks brothers, who are in jail here on the charge of passing counterfeit money, an expert statement to be used in the prosecution of the Taylor brothers, who are now in jail at Leitchfield under a similar charge, and who will be brought here on the 30th inst. for trial before Commissioner Bell. Capt. Jenkins got an extended statement from the Hendrickses, having employed a stenographer for the purpose. The Hendrickses boy-stick to the statement that they were the victims of the Taylor boys, while the Taylor boys are contending that they were victimized and that they were drawn into the trap by the Hendrickses. The Hendrickses were tried before Commissioner Bell and acquitted in the sum of $1,500 each. In default of bail they were committed to jail here to await the action of the grand jury.

Capt. Jenkins is confident that a gang of the "shovers of the queer" has been unearthed in the arrests of the Taylors and Hendrickses and that they have long been engaged in the "green goods" business and will so prove at the final trial. Captain Jenkins brought with him the money passed by the Hendrickses on the Olcott people which was used as evidence at the trial this morning.

Notice to Log Men.

I am ready to buy a very limited number of sawlogs. I will be in Hartford on Monday and Tuesday of each week so far as possible, and would be glad to see any who contemplate cutting this season. My post-office address is Sulphur Springs, Ohio county, Ky. If you can't come to town, write me and I will come to see you.

W. H. Moore.

Storm Swept.

[Owensboro Inquirer.]

Mr. Adam Keller reports two barns destroyed near the Pap creek bridge Saturday afternoon. A large barn on the farm of Mr. Geo. Haves was completely destroyed, and another barn in the same neighborhood, the property of Mrs. Mattie Haves was uninsured.

Mr. George T. Haves, of Powers, said to-day that the storm of Saturday was the most destructive he had ever seen in this section of the country. Two opposing storms met near Powers and the damage was very great.

The large tobacco, a great deal of which was in top, was stripped and torn by the rain, hail and wind. The smaller plants were beaten into the earth. The advanced tobacco was almost entirely ruined. The blades were lashed to threads and the stalks flattened almost as if rolled. All of the low ground and much of the up ground was under water. Mr. Haves said he had been in this country since 1851 and had never seen the like before. The destructive storm extended several miles.

WHITESVILLE, KY.

July 23d.—Quite a mercantile deal was effected in town last week. The drug firm of Letsey & Knox was dissolved. Mr. Letsey retiring.

Will Cook was in Leitchfield last week.

Misses Clyde Conyers, Estelle Brooks and Alma Stinnett returned last week from a visit at Leitchfield.

Miss Liva Wedding visited at Horton last week.

John Kittinger, Sr., of South Carroll county, of our genial cashier, was in town last week.

P. M. Brady is out after a ten days illness.

Mrs. Guy Roby, of Bone Gap, Ill., joined her husband last week and they will spend some time in vicinity.

Will Hamilton is the happiest man around, unless it is Charlie Mattingly. Will has a fine boy and Charlie a fine girl.

Rev. Ed. Drury gave several excellent lectures at the Catholic Church in the past two weeks to large audiences.

Rev. John James filled his regular appointment at the Christian Church Sunday and continued his sermons next Tuesday.

Whitesville base-ball boys went to Knottville and defeated the Knottville boys in a closely contested game, the score standing 19 for the former and 16 for the latter.

Miss Annie Allen is visiting at Rosine.

Miss Mary Westerfield, of Fordville, is visiting in town.

Miss Mina Brooks returned home Saturday after a two week's visit at Philpot.

Mrs. S. C. Barhill and little daughter, of Providence, are visiting relatives in town.

Emmett Cook, of Owensboro, is at Self Pryor, a farm hand on J. M. Colyer's farm, from a load of hay Friday last and broke his leg and arm. Drs. Barrett and Knox dressed the wounds and at present Mr. Pryor is doing reasonably well.

Rev. Celestine Bray, a son of J. W. Bray, who lives near town, was ordained Sunday at Louisville and will celebrate his first mass at St. Mary's Church Sunday the 28th. Rev. Bray is the first priest ever ordained from this place.

JINKS.

S. S. Convention of Kentucky.

The Thirtieth Annual Convention of the Kentucky Sunday-school Union will be held in Lexington on August 13, 14 and 15. The prospects are for the largest gathering of Sunday-School workers ever held in Kentucky.

The citizens of Lexington will provide for the entertainment of all delegates during the Convention. Lexington's hospitality is too well known to require any comment in these columns. Every county in the State is entitled to five (5) delegates from the county at large. Every School is entitled to one delegate for each hundred members or fraction thereof. Those who expect to attend should send their names before August 10 to E. C. Baldwin, at Lexington, so that homes may be provided.

The railroads of the State have granted a rate of one fare for the round trip on presentation of proper certificates, which may be secured from county officers or from Miss Mamie F. Huber, State Secretary, at Louisville.

Important to Sunday School Workers.

All Superintendents of Sunday Schools in Ohio county are requested to send statistical report and contributions at once to county secretary S. J. Thibodeau, Mifflin, Ky. Don't hold back on account of lack of contributions. We must have reports in by August 1st as State Convention meets August 13. T. J. Balm, President O. C. S. U. All county papers please copy.

SULPHUR SPRINGS, KY.

July 23d.—Quite a number of ladies and gentlemen spent Sunday at the Hotel. Among those from Fordville were: Messrs. Mack Smith, Mack Wise, and John Harpe, Bartley Howard, Leonard Johnson, Sid Williamson and Will Overton.

Misses Grace Howard, Edna and Belle Wilson of Louisville, Misses Graham, Lida Sargent, Abbie Smith, Clara Davidson, Ellis Smith, Prof. Crow, and R. L. Ballington, of Hartford, spent Sunday at the Springs.

Dr. Taylor, of Owensboro, is stopping at the hotel.

Mrs. E. M. Snider, of Owensboro, is spending the summer here.

Mr. A. S. Anll made a flying trip to Hartford to-day on business.

Messrs. Barn and Emmitt Cate made a flying trip to Fordville Saturday.

Mr. Louis Franklin, of Illinois and Miss Belle Hamilton will be married at Owensboro July 30th, at 8 o'clock and will leave for Illinois to make their future home. We regret to lose Miss Belle, but she has our best wishes for a long and happy life.

A Nat.

Chloroformed by Daring Thieves.

Owensboro, Ky., July 23.—(Special.)—Thieves entered the house of an aged couple, three miles from this city last night and chloroformed the sleeping inmates, Mr. and Mrs. William Goff, after which they rifled the house and secured about $300. The old man kept his money in purses scattered about his room in nooks and crannies.

The remainder of the family who slept upstairs heard nothing and were only cognizant of the fact when a daughter tried to rouse the old people this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Goff are both over eighty years of age and their recovery from the effect of the drug is doubtful. There is no clue to the perpetrators.

Public Speaking.

Hon. C. S. Bate, populist candidate for the United States Senate, will speak at the court house in Hartford next Saturday at 2 o'clock p. m. Every-body invited.

A. S. Wessley.

To the Members and Friends of the Gothen Church.

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS:—Without any knowledge or solicitation on my part, the Quarterly Conference elected me as your Sunday School Superintendent. Now, as to the success of the school, that is with you, because the work will not prosper without the earnest, enthusiastic and prayerful cooperation on your part and that I may have this to the utmost, is my soul's prayer this morning. Jesus said, "If ye love me, feed my lambs," and this is the fundamental work of the Sunday School, and I do not believe our skirts will be clear of their blood at the judgment if we fail in this line. We want to organize next Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Come, bring your bibles, testaments, song books and above everything else bring Jesus with you, and then our success will be assured. Praying that heaven's richest blessings may rest upon us and that many souls may be saved, I remain yours to serve.

GROSS WILLIAMS.

Hartford, July 23, 1895.

SELECT, KY.

ALBERT RIAL.

CENTRAL, KY.

July 22d.—Health of the community is good.

Rev. J. A. Miller filled his regular appointment at the school house Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m.

The Sabbath School is growing in interest with Mr. A. J. Williams as Superintendent and we hope that much good will be accomplished.

Mrs. J. H. Hoover and daughter, Lizzie, of Hartford, were guests of the family of Mrs. D. M. Park Sunday.

Miss Sadie Bonket is visiting in Beaver Dam, the guest of Mrs. A. D. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Miller and little daughter Lillie, Owensboro, are visiting the family of Mr. Elijah Miller at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Byers, Rosine, are visiting friends and relatives in this community.

Miss Myrtle Rowe will teach the school at this place this fall.

AGNESIA.

Well for Wilbur.

The Elizabethtown News, speaking of a young gentleman well and favorably known in this county, says:

"Mr. Wilbur T. Hayward, son of Senator Hayward, of this county, has been appointed as acting City Attorney of Louisville during the vacation of Attorney Thurman. Mr. Hayward is a bright young lawyer and this position will give him an opportunity to make a reputation in Louisville as a prosecutor."

Rheumatism Cured.

"I have been troubled with rheumatism for several years. Two years ago I had a very bad spell and was scarcely able to dress and undress myself. I thought I would try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and before I had finished the first bottle I found that it had done me good. I have been troubled but very little with rheumatism since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla." Fannie Reynolds, Columbia, Ky.

Hood's Pills cure sick headache.

Good Wheat.

The Hancock Clarion says: Wheat is threshing out remarkably well this year. From 30 to 50 bushels per acre throughout this county. The best yield that we have heard of is from Avery Folk, of Tobin's bottom, who cut two acres which threshed out 104 bushels.

Look for the Central Hotel!

When you get off the train at Horse Branch; just opposite depot and connected by platform. All trains meet promptly at night. Rates $1.00 per day. S. D. Morgan, Proprietor.

Notice.

All persons holding claims against the trustee of the jury fund are requested to present them for payment.

G. B. LUKAS.

The Chicagoan, 1771.

I had my head rolled on. Aunt Storor said it ought to be made less. Aunt Deming said it ought not to be made at all. It makes my head itch and ache and burn like anything, mamma. This famous roll is not made wholly of a red cow tail, but is a mixture of that and horsehair (very coarse) and a little human hair of yellow hue, that, I suppose, was taken out of the back part of an old wig. Nothing renders a young person more available than virtue and modesty without the help of false hair, red cow tail and D— (the barber). "Diary of Anna Green Winslow," Alice Moon Earle.
